

NEW YORK CITY VEHICLE COLLISION 2012 - 2022

1.940M

Collision

5.36K

Total Deaths

1.13M

Total_Injuries

60

Unique_Causes

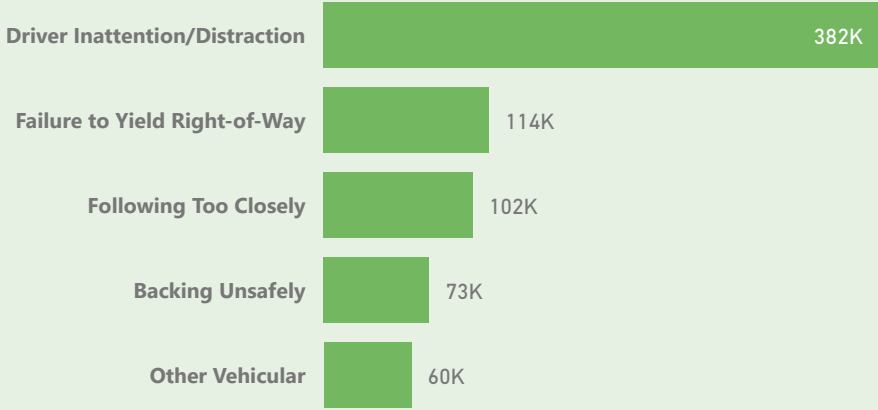

BOROUGH/TOWN

All

Year

All

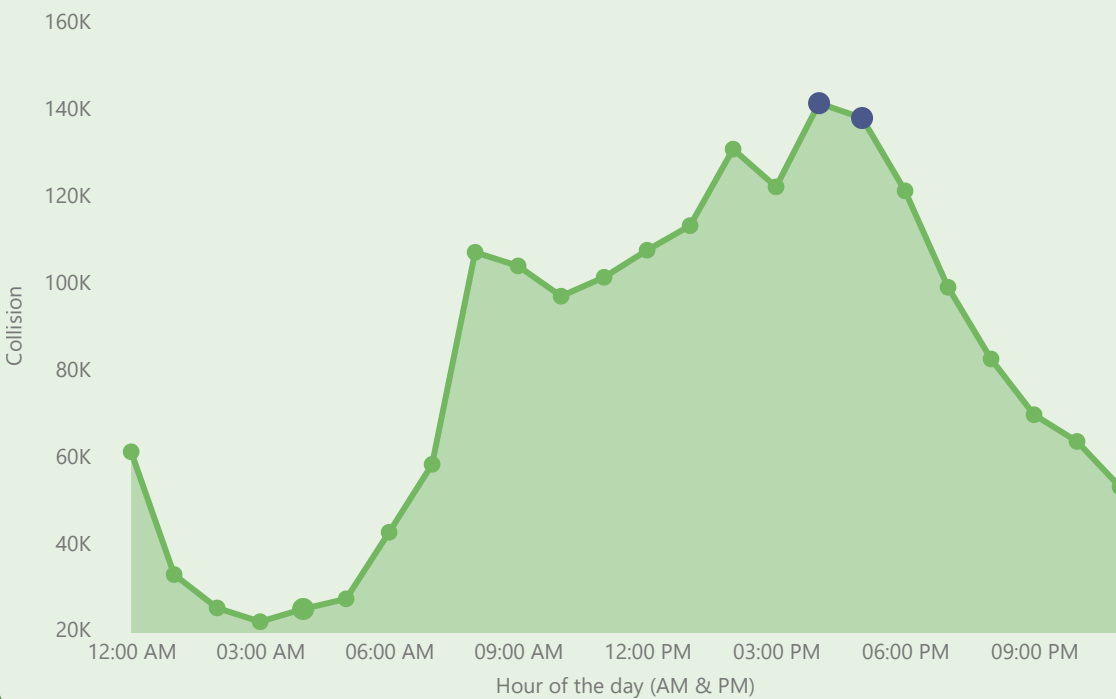

Top 5 Causes by total Collisions

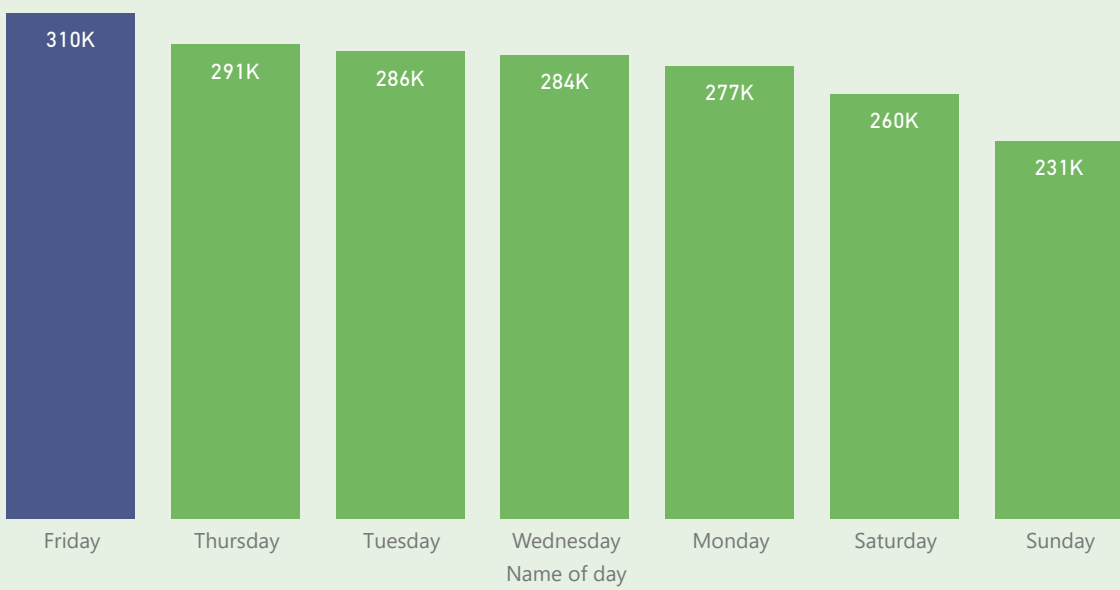

Total Collisions by Year

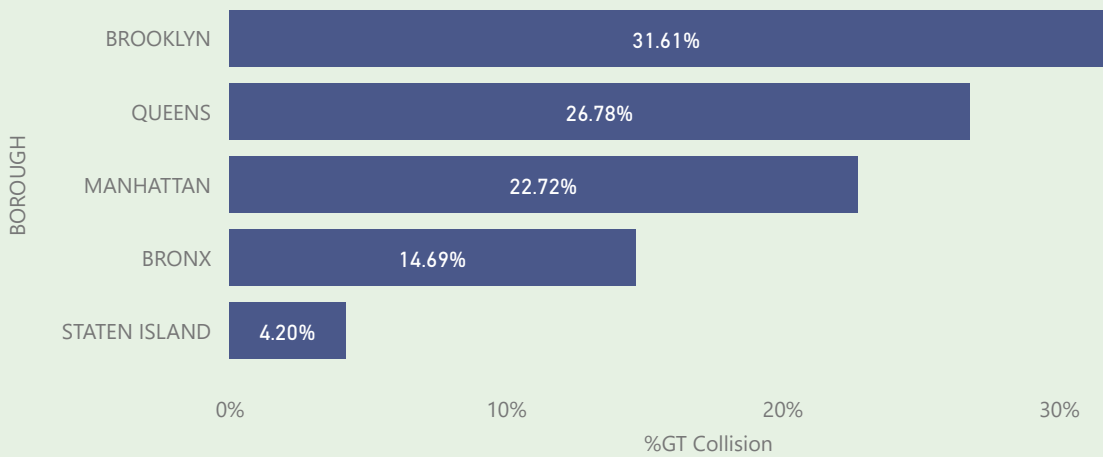

Collisions by Hour of Day

Collisions by day of week

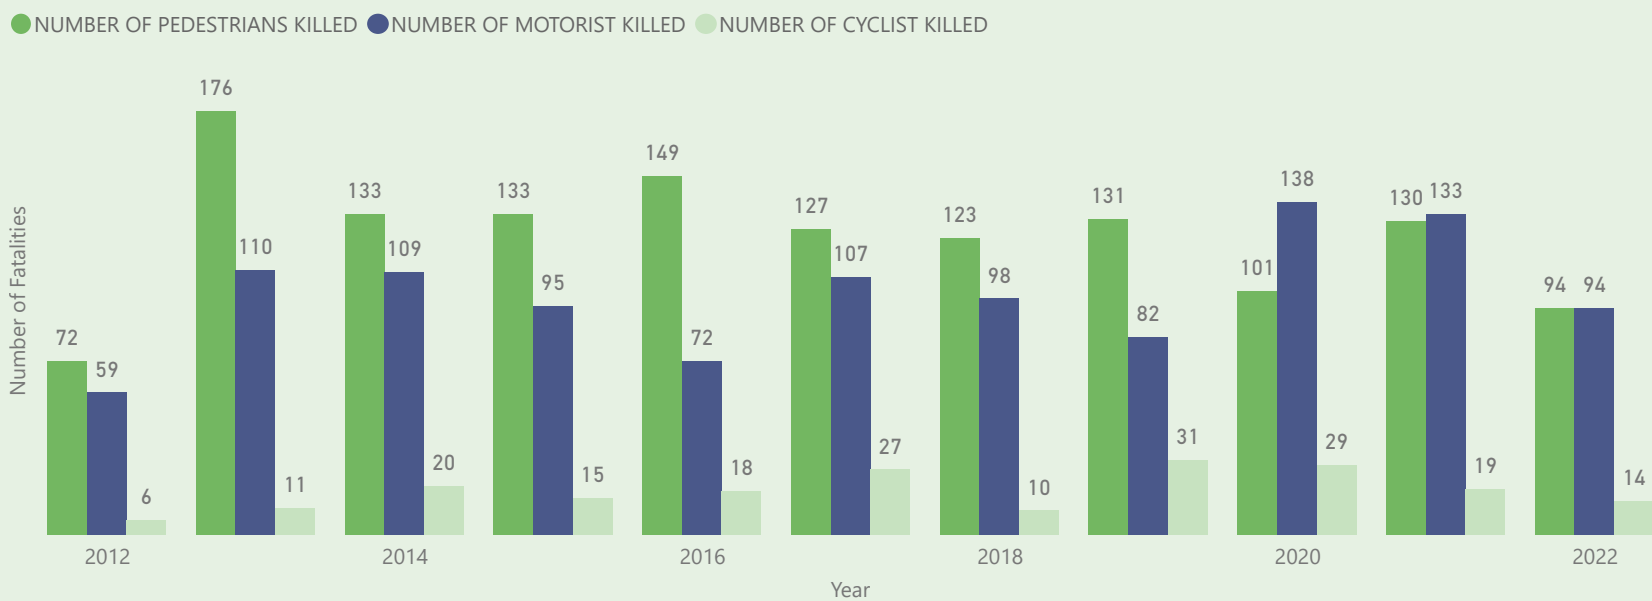

Total Collisions by City

Collisions by BOROUGH

Fatalities by category of road users

Zip_Code with collisions and Deaths

ZIP CODE	Collision	Total Deaths
11207	25580	68
11101	18047	35
11236	17732	87
11203	17066	30
11234	16696	54
11385	16670	40
10019	16544	16
11201	16145	21
10016	15987	24
11212	15843	39
10036	15837	24
11208	15777	48
11226	15703	29
11434	15375	50
10001	15309	26
10022	15303	28
10002	14283	34

Insights

- 2018 has the highest recorded number of car accidents in New York City and 2020 there was a sharp decrease of car accidents by 46%.
- Driver Inattention/Distraction accounted for 52.22% of the car accidents in New York City.
- 32% of the Collisions took place in Brooklyn town followed by Queens.
- Pedestrians are the most killed when there is a collision compared to other road users in New York City.
- Most of the collisions are seen during 4pm - 5pm which is rush hour and fairly high in the morning between 8am and 9am.
- Broadway street is the most dangerous street which has more collisions in Brooklyn town.

Top 10 Streets by Collisions

